Academic Plan of Study
2017 General Education

Program Summary Information:

- Declaring the Major: Minimum of 2.7 GPA requirement; Passing scores on all three parts of the Praxis Core or acceptable alternatives (SAT or ACT scores); Grades in SPED 2100 and either EDUC 1100 or EDUC 2100 of “C” or above. Students must also complete an “Application for Admission to a Teacher Education Program” in the Office of Teacher Education Advising and Licensure (TEAL) in the Cato College of Education. This should occur after a student has earned at least 30 credit hours of coursework.
- Advising (major): Required immediately on admission to the major and at each registration period by the undergraduate special education advisor in the Department of Special Education and Child Development. Course permits may be required, and these can only be obtained through the department.
- Advising (General Education): By advisors in the Office of TEAL in the Cato College of Education during the freshman and sophomore year.
- Minimum Grades/GPA: GPA of 2.5 or higher must be maintained; Grades in professional education and concentration coursework must be “C” or above and the overall GPA in these courses must be a 2.75.
- Teacher Licensure: YES, the Special Education program provides a K-12 license in both Special Education: Adapted Curriculum and/or Special Education: General Curriculum.
- Night Classes Available: NO. (Some courses may be taught in the evening; however, the major cannot be completed by taking evening classes only.)
- Weekend Classes Available: NO.
- Other information: A yearlong internship (YLI) is a requirement for completion of the major. This YLI must begin one semester prior to student teaching. An application is required for admission to the YLI and must be completed early in the semester prior to beginning the internship - see Office of Field Experiences’ website (ofe.uncc.edu) for YLI application deadlines. Student teaching is required the last semester upon completing all other coursework required for the major. Student teaching requires an additional application, that students meet all GPA requirements, and includes the undergraduate advisor’s recommendation.
- Contact(s): Pre admission to major – contact undergraduate advisors in the Office of Teacher Education Advising and Licensure at 704-687-8725 or electronically at teal@uncc.edu. The TEAL office is located in room 119 in the Cato College of Education. Post admission to major – contact Dr. Janet Baxter (Special Education General Curriculum Undergraduate Program Director) at 704-687-8833 or electronically at jbaxter@uncc.edu. Dr. Baxter’s office is located in room 340 in the Cato College of Education.

Program Requirements:

The Special Education (SPED) major has a very structured curriculum. Freshmen and sophomores who intend to major in Special Education are classified as Pre-Education majors in Special Education. During the pre-education phase students are advised by TEAL advisors regarding General Education.

Upon completion of the education prerequisite courses and 30 credit hours, students may be admitted to the SPED program as majors. Upon admission to full-standing in the program, students are to meet with their SPED advisor, where they plan the remainder of their program of studies (typically the second semester of the sophomore year, the junior year, and senior year).

Minimum criteria for admission to the SPED program:

- Completion of SPED 2100 and either EDUC 1100 or EDUC 2100, with a minimum grade of a “C,” by the end of the semester of application.
- 30 credit hours of coursework.
- An overall GPA (Grade Point Average) of 2.7.

- A passing score on the PRAXIS Core exam.
- Completion of the practice NC Foundations General Curriculum tests in Canvas.
